

30 Days of Gratitude Challenge Day 26 — My Writing

Learning to share emotionally and truthfully, warts and all, has helped me grow as a woman, a writer, a mom, a human.

November 26, 2018 By Lisa Vento Nielsen

I started writing at a young age and have barely stopped. Writing is how I process things and also how I share knowledge and content. I am blessed to have found my voice — at first just for “stuffy” content at my small business blog, but after speaking about my cancer experiences, learning to share (I tend to think) emotionally and truthfully, warts and all, has helped me grow as a woman, a writer, mom, human etc.

I do hope you continue to read the many things that I write via my blogs and also consider reading my books I have written on such things as entrepreneurship, college readiness, career prep and survivorship from cancer.

When I self-published my first book in 2016, I was so proud and I have since added several other books as well, including a children’s book :).

Thanks for reading :).
